

WHY OBAMA MUST BE IMPEACHED

President Barack Obama's stated intention, to shut down and destroy the NASA program at its root, when added to the Hitler-like health-care policy, and the general, destructive features of all other leading Obama policies, is one step too far to bear. There is no longer room on this planet for a United States and a President Obama to occupy the same space.

The need for Obama's ouster, either by resignation or impeachment is now an existential issue for both our republic and the welfare of the planet generally.

Since the founding of our republic, the existence of our nation has depended upon surges of science-driven and related increases of the productive powers of labor, per capita, and per square kilometer of our territory. Now, especially since the reign of former President George W. Bush, Jr., and now that of Obama, the very means, of science and technology, by which the existence of our republic had formerly prospered, have been destroyed, step, by step, by step. Our industries have gone, the security of our food supplies has been undermined, and now the last bastion of the means of technological progress, the space program, is scheduled for obliteration.

Simply, the time has come, that President Obama must go, either by his own choice, or ours. The intention of our Federal Constitution demands this.

-Lyndon H. LaRouche Jr.

No American patriot contemplates the prospect of impeaching the President of the United States lightly. Thus, despite the fact that President Barack Obama has for months been openly proposing and campaigning for a health care policy which is modeled directly on that of the Hitler regime, and which will lead, if implemented, to the kinds of genocidal results for which that regime, and many of its adherents, were condemned for Crimes Against Humanity after World War II, patriot Lyndon LaRouche has refrained up to this time from calling for him to be impeached. Back in late July, LaRouche declared that the President was "impeachable" for his Nazi health care "reform." The President, and those with the potential to bring him under control, failed to listen, or change course. Instead, we are at the very threshold of the President and his henchman ramming through this same Nazi plan, which would serve as a giant step toward a genocidal dictatorship. Now, as LaRouche's Jan. 6 statement argues, impeachment must be put squarely on the table.

Under the U.S. Constitutional system, the purpose of impeachment is the protection of the nation, by removing from high office a Federal official who is causing grave injury to the nation, its people, and its Constitution. Impeachment is not a criminal proceeding; its purpose is not to punish a wrongdoer, but to prevent him or her from doing further, irreparable harm to the country. The question of prosecution, or imprisonment, comes later—if at all.

The U.S. Constitution sets a high standard for bringing a bill of impeachment against a high public official. The grounds are restricted to "treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors." The clear intent, as a review of the discussions by the Founders at the Constitutional convention indicates, was to target crimes against the Constitutional order. The bills of impeachment against President Richard Nixon put it well, when they declared, in each count, that "In all of this, Richard M. Nixon has acted in a manner contrary to his trust as President and subversive of constitutional government, to the great prejudice of the cause of law and justice and to the manifest injury of the people of the United States."

President Obama's crimes dwarf those of Richard Nixon. Public evidence alone demonstrates that he is leading a conspiracy to subvert constitutional government, and to impose measures which would result in mass death of Americans, and the destruction of the nation. His high crimes and misdemeanors, as elaborated below, include actions which amount to a conspiracy to commit Crimes Against Humanity which will predictably result in murder or other atrocities, offenses or inhumane acts against the civilian population of the United States; actions which would lead to the imposition of genocide against civilian populations in other parts of the world; and actions would lead to the elimination of the sovereignty of the United States, by submitting control over its economic policy to supranational powers committed to reducing the world's population by billions of people.

In light of these facts, President Obama's remaining in the Presidency represents a clear and present danger to the United States, its citizens, and its Constitution. Constitutional means must be used to prevent him from carrying out these crimes.

PETER ORSZAG IS A MOON-ATIC

After Budget Director Peter Orszag announced an Obama White House FY2011 budget barren of real economic investment, but full of the "green" kind, economist Lyndon LaRouche called Orszag "a moon-atic." Shutting down NASA manned space exploration — after 50 years of this nation's most important transportation program — was just the worst of a terrible concoction. "Orszag and the other Obama moon-atics say that America should produce nothing but gambling debts," LaRouche said. "That's the only kind of employment they allow. You can be employed — just don't produce anything."

Orszag and Council of Economic Advisors head Christina Romer presented Obama's budget at the White House this morning. Despite projecting to increase taxes by over $600 billion in the coming fiscal year, Obama proposes that Congress invest essentially nothing in hard infrastructure — space, transportation, nuclear power, rail corridors, water transport, clean water provision, etc. His "jobs program" — $100 billion out of a $3.8 trillion budget — consists of small business tax cuts and state aid for unemployment benefits, etc. The much-ballyhooed high-speed rail investment of FY2010 is followed for FY2011 by a proposal for — $1 billion.

Here's what moon-atic Orszag said he and Obama thought they could afford for real investment: "To build a more modern infrastructure, the Budget establishes a new $4 billion National Infrastructure Innovation & Finance Fund to focus on infrastructure investments of national and regional significance." But the waste of research and development funds on solar collector and biomass-energy technologies, got $6 billion.

The Destruction of NASA

Throughout the 80's and 90's up to today, NASA has been wrongly labeled as a waste of budgetary resources. Obama has recently finalized the completely treasonous killing of what was left of NASA's Moon-Mars effort: the Constellation program. Lyndon LaRouche has called for Obama's impeachment as a result of this final nail in the coffin.

Rebuilding America: A Modern CCC

Lyndon LaRouche calls for the creation of a modern Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) to offer today's youth generation the necessary skills to carry forth a 'true' recovery of our economy. resident Franklin Roosevelt's historic CCC proved to be a success! Today, with both the nation's economy and the future of the youth at stake, can we make it happen again?

January 30th Webcast

Lyndon LaRouche's First International Webcast of 2010 is now available on the LaRouchePAC Website. Lyndon LaRouche continues his dialogue with leading policy makers around the world, and covers the necessary steps to lead the recovery of the presently collapsing World Economic System.
