

OBAMA BACKERS PLAN HITLER-LIKE COUP AGAINST THE USA

Since it is inevitable that the current U.S. President Barack Obama has no chance of being re-elected under what might be called a “democratic election-process,” and since President Obama is essentially a puppet of the British monarchy, bought and paid for in his original election as U.S. President, that fact, and relevant other evidence signifies that Obama could be made President again only by the same kind of proceeding which brought Adolf Hitler into the successive steps of his appointment by the order of the combined agency of the Bank of England and the support of Prescott Bush’s actions on behalf of the Bank of England’s Hjalmar Schacht and and Brown Brothers Harriman.

Given the facts of the crisis about to hit with great force with the first ten days following the close of the U.S. State Governments’ accounting year, and in light of the attempt to enforce the continued “bail out,” there can be no possibility that the forces controlling British puppet Barack Obama’s career do not fully intend to pull off a coup d’etat comparable to that of Adolf Hitler.

There is only one remedy for both the United States and the Trans-Atlantic community of nations: the immediate re-enactment of the 1933 Glass-Steagall law.

Not only is the immediate, forced draft enactment indispensable at this moment; the dumping of the accounts properly attributable to speculative banking, is an immediate precondition for the continued existence of our sovereign nation as a democratic form of sovereign republic modelled upon the intentions of the Preamble expressed in the founding of the U.S. Federal Constitution. Anyone in office who opposes the maintenance of such provisions of our Constitution is as guilty as a traitor acting against the very continued existence of our republic.

The remedies for our republic’s present afflictions exist on the condition that all measures which are not consistent with the immediate re-enactment of Glass-Steagall are annulled. This would be the efficient expression of our patriotic devotion to the continued maintenance of our republic against the presently virtual British imperial dictatorship and rape of the American people by the “bail-out” swindle.

THE GENERAL FORECAST

LYNDON H. LAROCHE, JR.

June 20, 2011 - We are at the brink of a global, chain-reaction collapse of the present international, trans-Atlantic system. A probable date for this, unless the Glass-Steagall law of 1933 is restored by emergency legislation, is a date presently scheduled in the U.S.A. for about July 10, 2011, or, at whatever time the Constitutional closing date for the resolution of the date of the states' reckoning on the resolution of their part in the matter.

In any case, the present world system will go into a collapse unless the 1933 Glass-Steagall law is enacted. Even if adjustments of the deadline were shifted by some fraudulent pretext in the name of Constitutional law which might affect the exact date of the chain-reaction collapse, the attempted shift of the date of the deadline would only slightly delay what were otherwise inevitable.

For precisely that reason, the foolish declaration from the U.S. Senate has put us in this bind, by postponing the action for removal of President Barack Obama. If the Senate wishes to make me the "folk hero" they have feared I might become, nothing will help them, or the present trans-Atlantic system, were the Senate's Democratic leadership to fail to take the option which they have failed to enact.

This is an understandable mental weakness among otherwise respectable leaders in the Senate. They have been disoriented by the reality that they tend to consider political decisions as like competitions which season the attention of politics as like a sports-field, rather than serious government concerned with the destiny of a nation and nations. That was the Senate leadership when it should have acted properly on the matter of the impeachment of the incumbent President. Children rooting for sports-teams, rather than the fate of nations.
