Hi [REDACTED]

Thank you! I have at least been advised that the audio issue was possibly operator error and resolved, but I'll follow up tomorrow and ask if she'd be willing to identify particular files there are issues with and let you know.

Thanks again,
[REDACTED]

Thanks very much for reaching out. I'm adding [REDACTED] who may be able to answer your question.

If there are particular files that Maxwell is having difficulty opening, please let us know, and we can try to figure out how to address the issue.

Thanks,

Good afternoon,

Maxwell was provided this drive on Tuesday. Staff have reported to me that she has reported that certain files do not work. Can you advise what types of files (i.e., video/excel/etc.) are on the drive and what players or applications may be necessary to view them? I'm trying to figure out what reasons may be for issues with the material on the drive.

Thank you,

We just sent another drive via FedEx. This drive contains all of the discovery in the case to date. The password for the drive is [REDACTED] (which we also sent in a separate letter).

Yes, these productions contain audio as well as video.

Let me know if you have any other questions. Have a good weekend.

Best,
[REDACTED]

That should be enough to track it down, thank you! If I have any issues, I'll let you know.

Good evening [REDACTED]

Just confirming - did you use FedEx, USPS, or some other carrier to send the discovery here? I have not received it yet, but it could just be that staff did not notify me a package arrived. Depending on the carrier, it could be in the warehouse or mailroom, so I just want to verify so I can find it expeditiously.

Thanks!

That's extremely helpful, thanks so much. We'll plan to put the drive in the mail tomorrow, and of course please let us know if any issues arise.

thanks again,

Hard drives should be mailed to the facility to the attention of the legal department. We need to etch the drive with a number and provide an authorization memo so she can retain it. Then it will be provided to her. It can be password protected so long as you include a cover letter that contains the password for her.

Hope this helps,

We have a hard drive with loaded discovery that we need to deliver to Ghislaine Maxwell, [REDACTED] at MDC. Could you please let us know what the current protocol is for that? Also, it's our understanding that hard drives with discovery materials for inmates needs to be non-encrypted (and not have a password for access), is that also correct? We're hoping to get these materials to her tomorrow if at all possible, so we greatly appreciate your help. And I'm reachable any time at [REDACTED] if it would be helpful to discuss.

thanks,
