Okay that makes sense, thanks – I'll circle back on Monday.

I'll give the DVD's to [REDACTED] but everything is on a hard drive and you would need to be at a computer to view the data. This can wait until you are back in the office.

[REDACTED],
Thanks very much – if you could please give the DVDs to [REDACTED] (cc'd here) for case file storage, that would be great.
And on the work product, I think it probably would make sense to take a look before it all gets uploaded to Relativity – what's the easiest way to do that? The entire team is unfortunately traveling from tomorrow through Friday, but we can talk / meet early next week if that's the most convenient.
thanks,
[REDACTED]

Hello [REDACTED],

The vendor has finished the document unitization and coding of the data from the 56 DVD files. Please let me know when you are in your office and I will return the DVD's to you, and also please let me know if you wish to review the vendor's work.
Thank you.
