Well I guess I have a few more questions these days! I've had a journalist knock on my door three times today.. I'm rather upset and curious to know is my name open for the public to know in this case? I'd like to chat some whenever you can. I'm taking tomorrow off but I'll be available at any hour now that [redacted] is fully involved. Sorry I didn't make the last interview life has been so overly hectic and busy with [redacted] but I really got some questions about going forward with some
