Yes, if true, would be somewhat shocking that [REDACTED] didn't report (and more shocking that they took him off suicide watch). Please let us know what you find out.

FYI, just received the below. The noose is a new detail I had not heard. I've reached out to [REDACTED] to ask if he has any new information or reports.

Subject: Jeffrey EPSTEIN

All,

Please be advised that we received the following report from the Bureau of Prisons MCC New York at 2115 hours on this date:

Associate Warden (AW) [REDACTED] at MCC New York advised that Jeffrey EPSTEIN was found in his cell this morning at 0127 hours in a fetal position with a noose around his neck. EPSTEIN was escorted to medical and was assessed. EPSTEIN was initially placed on suicide watch and subsequently downgraded to suicide observation, where he currently remains. Additionally, AW [REDACTED] advised that EPSTEIN's cell mate reported threatened to kill him. No further information was provided.

The above incident is currently under investigation with the BOP.
