I. Devices Subject to Search and Seizure

The devices that are the subject of this search and seizure warrant (the “Subject Devices”) are described as follows:

The Subject Devices were recovered from a search of JEFFREY EPSTEIN’s private residence located at [REDACTED], New York, New York, which took place on July 11, 2019. The Subject Devices are particularly described as follows:

- a. A “Seagate Path 100” hard drive, which was seized from inside a book shelf cabinet in an oval study on the first floor of the New York Residence, and which has been assigned internal FBI barcode number E6433822 (“Corrected Subject Device-32”);
- b. A “Seagate Path 100” hard drive, which was seized from inside a book shelf cabinet in an oval study on the first floor of the New York Residence, and which has been assigned internal FBI barcode number E6433824 (“Corrected Subject Device-33”); and
- c. A “Seagate Path 100” hard drive, which was seized from inside a book shelf cabinet in an oval study on the first floor of the New York Residence, and which has been assigned internal FBI barcode number E6433821 (“Corrected Subject Device-34”).

II. Review of ESI on the Subject Devices

Law enforcement personnel (who may include, in addition to law enforcement officers and agents, attorneys for the government, attorney support staff, agency personnel assisting the government in this investigation, and outside technical experts under government control) are authorized to review the ESI contained on the Subject Device for evidence, fruits, and instrumentalities of violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1591 (sex trafficking of minors), 2422 (transportation of minors), 2423 (enticement to travel), and 371 (conspiracy to commit sex trafficking, transportation of minors, and enticement to travel) (the “Subject Offenses”), for the period 1994 through August 8, 2019, described as follows:

1. Evidence concerning the identity or location of the owner(s) or user(s) of the Subject Devices.
2. Evidence concerning the identity or location of co-conspirators of JEFFREY EPSTEIN, including [REDACTED] and GHISLAINE MAXWELL.
3. Evidence concerning communications to, from, by, and/or among co-conspirators of JEFFREY EPSTEIN, including [REDACTED] and GHISLAINE MAXWELL.
4. Any documents or communications with or regarding victims or potential victims of the Subject Offenses.

5. Documents or records reflecting payments to victims and/or co-conspirators including but not limited to bank and financial records, spreadsheets, ledgers, account listings, check and wire records, and documents reflecting cash withdrawals.

6. Documents or records reflecting travel plans or arrangements for victims or potential victims of the Subject Offenses, or co-conspirators in those Subject Offenses, including but not limited to itineraries, tickets, receipts, flight manifests, passport or identification information, and related records.

7. Any photographs of victims or potential victims of the Subject Offenses.

8. Any nude, partially nude, or sexually suggestive photographs of individuals who appear to be teenage girls, or younger.

9. Records or other items that evidence ownership, control, or use of, or access to devices, storage media, and related electronic equipment used to access, transmit, or store information relating to the Subject Offenses, including, but not limited to, sales receipts, warranties, bills for Internet access, handwritten notes, registry entries, configuration files, saved usernames and passwords, user profiles, e-mail contacts, and photographs.

10. Any child erotica, defined as suggestive visual depictions of nude minors that do not constitute child pornography as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8).

If the Government determines that any of the Subject Devices is no longer necessary to retrieve and preserve the data on the device, and that any of the Subject Devices is not subject to seizure pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41(c), the Government will return any such Subject Device, upon request.
