Dear [REDACTED]

I confirm that any photographs which you disclose to the Daily Mail concerning the late Jeffrey Epstein and his former associates, shall remain confidential and will not be published in the Daily Mail newspaper or disclosed to any third party until such time as a formal written agreement has been reached between us relating to the publication of the information. The above restriction does not apply to any photographs which are at the date hereof, or become hereafter, public through no fault of the Daily Mail.

Yours sincerely,

Maggie O'Riordan

Executive Editor (Femail)

I have read and understood the terms of this Agreement and agree to abide by them.

Signed
