██████████,

Following up from today, as promised wanted to send a separate list of the people we talked about in terms of same-day (or as soon as possible thereafter) approaches:

███████
███████
█████████████
███████
████████

And then the next most important category, of people for the following few days:

█████████████
███████████
██████████████████
███████
████████

Could you please let us know the current status on addresses for those individuals in particular? And could you also please send us a copy of your spreadsheet with location information for everybody so far?

thanks very much,
